YACHTS MAY GO CRUISING

Fleet May Take Advantage of Labor Day.

A yachting cruise is being contemplated to start on Saturday next and, Monday being Labor Day, continue until that evening. The yachtsmen have about decided that cruising is much more satisfactory than racing with a fleet of so many different raters and are encouraging all such expeditions.

Two plans have been proposed, one to cruise along the coast past Pearl Harbor to Waianae anchoring at some convenient harbor, probably Waianae, on Sunday night and fishing by trolling line. Two launches, Commodore Cooper's and C. W. Macfarlane's may participate.

The other plan is to follow the Gladys trip of two weeks ago and make a trip to the big Penguin shoal extending off the western coast of Molokai and reached on a southeasterly course some twenty miles from Diamond Head.

There on the big bank averaging 24 fathoms with a depth of 200 all around it, the yachtsmen would turn anglers for the nonce and try to haul in some of the fish with which the bank is said to swarm. On Monday the fleet would sail to Rabbit Island and weather permitting anchor, landing to explore the crater, shoot rabbits, goats and seabirds and gather eggs and shells, returning to Honolulu and Pearl Harbor Monday afternoon. This would make an ideal cruise for the larger yachts.

The boats generally are tuning up for the annual regatta day races and the prizes always offered by the committee in charge. Walker Brother's speedy Defiance and Sorenson and Lyle's swift Irish will doubtless be out to try conclusions with each other and the Myrtle, Melihini, Wilkewiki and others of that class while Renton's new yacht will put herself against her larger model Gladys with La Paloma, Hawaii and possibly the Helene and Spray.
